215 West Washington Street
Chicago, IL 60606 | 1-888-249-5719

The Revolution of Modern Apartment Life Upscale. Chic. Responsible. In other words, 215 West. The first new residential development built in the Central Business District since 1993, 215 West combines luxury and an ecologically conscious lifestyle. From here on out, green living will always be associated with optimal comfort. Creating a LEED certified high-rise rental residence in Chicago is no small feat. Making it into a stylish living environment is an even bigger challenge, but that's what we're doing with 215 West. Integrating ecologically sensitive design with luxurious finishes and features is the essence of our community. Here, you'll find a home that caters to your well-being while providing a blueprint for sustainable living. The entire building represents our commitment to a progressive, healthy lifestyle you won't find anywhere else.
